Ohio Humanities Announces $124,000 in Grant Awards to Organizations Across the State

Ohio Humanities, the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities, recently awarded more than $124,000 in Major Grants of up $20,000 to nine nonprofit organizations across the state.

Each project will challenge participants' perspectives on current issues. They include the development of a museum exhibit and documentary film of a community's struggle to integrate an elementary school; the arming public school teachers; and, the development of an exhibition honoring Ohio's first responders.

During this grant cycle, Ohio Humanities trustees awarded the following Major Grants:

The Lincoln School Project | Award: $21,500

A grant in support of a museum exhibit and 10-minute film documentary telling the stories of five African American women who fought to integrate Lincoln Elementary School in the shadow of the 1954 Supreme Court ruling on Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas. | The Highland County Historical Society, Highland County
