

Schools Reopen Monday After 'Fair Holiday'

Schools throughout the county reopened Monday after a two-day holiday for the county fair. Pupils were dismissed both Thursday and Friday for the event.

Regular daily schedules will prevail for the next few weeks as pupils plunge into the world of books and lessons.

The next day of vacation will be on Oct. 29, when school will be dismissed for one day for the Southwestern Ohio Teachers' Meeting.

In Hillsboro Schools, Monday, colored pupils reported to Webster and Washington buildings as they had the two days schools was in session last week.

The same number were on hand as originally started, 17 at Washington and 33 at Webster. They were seated in their regular grades, with no discrimination as to seats, principals said.

The board of education is expected to discuss the assignment of pupils to schools at a regular monthly meeting this week.
