

Hearing Being Held on Schools

BULLETIN

Judge Druffel took the local case under advisement Wednesday afternoon following a hearing in District Court at Cincinnati. The judge heard testimony from both sides at the hearing but following its completion did not make any specific ruling.

Paul L. Upp, superintendent of city schools, and members of the Hillsboro Board of Education were in Cincinnati Wednesday morning for a hearing in U. S. District Court on the alleged segregation case filed against the school board by five Negro women here.
