

Interior Finishing Begun on New School

COMING IN ON WING—Interior walls are being completed on the south wing of the new Webster elementary school here. Roof joists are in place and windows have arrived and are ready for installation. The south wall of the wing, containing classrooms only, will have large window areas, overlooking the playground. The project is scheduled for completion in time for the fall term of school.

(Staff Photo)